ANDREW SETH BAUGHER JOINS LENHART OBENSHAIN

HARRISONBURG, VIRGINIA – Lenhart Obenshain PC, a business and litigation focused law firm with offices in Charlottesville and Harrisonburg, announces the arrival of its newest attorney, Andrew Seth Baugher. Prior to joining Lenhart Obenshain in private practice, Andrew completed a prestigious two-year clerkship with the Supreme Court of Virginia. While in law school Andrew won several regional and national moot court awards and appellate competitions demonstrating both oral and written advocacy skills. Andrew will be using his skills and experience assisting clients as part of Lenhart Obenshain’s litigation team. He will focus his practice on both federal and state litigation with an emphasis on intellectual property litigation, commercial and employment disputes and personal injury claims. Mark Obenshain, Chair of Lenhart Obenshain’s Litigation Group said, “We are delighted to have a young lawyer with Andrew’s background and skill joining our trial team. His presence is helping us to continue to expand the scope of litigation services we offer to our clients.”

Lenhart Obenshain has fifteen lawyers and twenty-two staff members between its two offices. Lenhart Obenshain is an “AV-rated” law firm by Martindale-Hubbell® and its attorneys have been named to Virginia Business’ “Legal Elite” listing, and Virginia Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America® publications.
