NANCY R. SCHLICHTING JOINS KEELER OBENSHAIN PC

November 3, 2004. Keeler Obenshain PC announces that Nancy R. Schlichting has joined the law firm. Ms. Schlichting practiced in Florida for 15 years before moving to back to Virginia. She has concentrated her practice in commercial litigation, including litigation in health care in the areas of risk management, licensure, credentialing and peer review, managed care, reimbursement and employment matters. She has also handled numerous contractual disputes, with a focus on representing corporations in real estate related litigation and banks in foreclosure, lender liability, collection cases, and in bankruptcy proceedings.

Ms. Schlichting has returned to Charlottesville where she received her undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia in 1985. She obtained her law degree cum laude from the University of Miami in 1989. She is admitted to practice before all state courts in the Commonwealth of Virginia and the United States District Court for the Eastern and Western Districts. She is also admitted to practice before all Florida state courts, the United States District Court for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the United States Supreme Court.

Keeler Obenshain PC, with offices in Charlottesville and Harrisonburg, has fifteen attorneys offering the know-how of a big firm with the responsiveness and value of a small one.
