

Lawyer Joins Keeler Obenshain

Nancy R. Schlichting has joined the Keeler Obenshain law firm, which has offices in Harrisonburg and Charlottesville.

Schlichting practiced in Florida for 15 years before moving back to Virginia. She has concentrated her practice in commercial litigation, including litigation in the areas of healthcare risk management, licensure, credentialing and peer review, managed care, reimbursement and employment matters.

Schlichting

Schlichting graduated from the University of Virginia and obtained her law degree from the University of Miami