HARRISONBURG - The Harrisonburg-Rockingham Bar Association recently elected a new slate of officers.

Jeffrey G. Lenhart, an attorney with Lenhart Obenshain, was selected to be president. He has over two decades of experience in business formation, health care, succession planning, and mergers and acquisitions. His practice also specializes in estate planning, with particular emphasis in representing family-owned businesses, and employee benefits.

He earned his bachelor's and law degree from William and Mary, and his master of laws with distinction in taxation from Georgetown University.

President-Elect David L. Parker is an attorney with David L. Parker PC. His practice specializes in personal injury and criminal law.

Parker served eight years as an active-duty member of the U.S. Army's JAG Corps, and received a Bronze Star for his representation of clients while serving with the 1st Infantry Division during Desert Storm.

He is currently the staff judge advocate of the 29th Infantry Division, Virginia National Guard, and recently returned from a deployment to Kosovo.

Parker graduated with distinction from Virginia Military Institute with a bachelor's in history, and received his law degree from The T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond. He received his Master of Laws from the U.S. Army's Judge Advocate General's School.

Liza Q. Wirtz, who was elected to secretary, is a staff attorney with Blue Ridge Legal Services Inc.

She is a fourth-generation lawyer and a graduate of the Vanderbilt Law School, where she served on the editorial board of the Vanderbilt Law Review, Moot Court, the Legal Aid Society, the Phi Delta Phi legal service fraternity, and OUTLaw.

Upon graduating, she received the Damali A. Booker Award for legal activism from her fellow students and the Bennett Douglas Bell Memorial Prize from the law school faculty.

Wirtz graduated from Kenyon College and earned her master's from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Prior to law school, she spent nearly 20 years as a professional musician, copy editor, secretary and book retailer.

John C. Cale, elected to treasurer, is an attorney with Lenhart Obenshain.

His practice focuses on tax, business and health care law.

Cale graduated from Williams College, majoring in economics, and attended the Fourth-Year Chinese program while participating in a "Princeton in Beijing" program.

He has also attended CET Academic Programs-Harbin Institute of Technology in China, where coursework included Chinese contract law, Chinese legal writing and classical Chinese.

Cale earned his post-baccalaureate certificate in accounting and his law degree from the University of Virginia.
